

Admiral Arthur Phillip RN Memorials Appeal

The Britain-Australia Society Education Trust
registered with the UK Charity Commission, number 803505

As the first Governor of Australia, Arthur Phillip used his great skills of insight, management, pragmatism and humanitarianism to overcome huge odds in founding the successful New South Wales colony. He has been under-recognised in the land of his birth. On the bicentenary of his death that will be remedied. Memorials are being installed in his home town of Bath and in the heart of Westminster Abbey, and his memory, will be celebrated with an on-going educational bursary.
